

NORTHERN MN TRIBAL-COUNTY RELATIONS WORKSHOP

SAVE THE DATE | 20 JUNE 2023

Description

This training is designed as a collaborative effort between Northern Minnesota Tribal Nations, Public and Private partners to provide a venue for discussion about further developing positive working relationships through a better understanding of tribal governments, history, culture, and traditions. Course curriculum offers an in-person experience with interactive discussion, question and answer panels, and tribal-county government relationship examples.

Learning Objectives

- Build trust and mutual respect between Tribal-County partners and ultimately forming stronger relationships.
- Provide the knowledge, education, and support necessary for allowing Tribal-County partners to better collaborate.
- Become better neighbors and continue supporting each other during incidents and disasters.

Audience

The intended audience includes emergency management, health, health care, emergency medical services, law enforcement, fire, elected officials and other response and planning disciplines from Tribal Nations, Minnesota jurisdictions and private organizations.
